J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of DUPLEX (or two) ELLIPTIC PURE REFINED STEEL SPRINGS, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable SPRING ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Spring, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promonade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day wil never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Hoops are covered with 2-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps etc., etc, which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

THE LEGISLATURE.

This body has elected five out of the eight circuit Judges and four Solicitors, besides three Judges of the Supreme Court.

The various elections to be had by this body afford ample scope for proscription.

Proscription is the order of the day; but it is aimed at those who believed in the right of secession as a principle. No matter how honest, or sincere, or conscientious was the belief—no matter how competent to fill any office for which his name is proposed, it is sufficient for such latter day saints as Mr. John Pool to say, stand aside forever; you may employ your high talents in the private pursuits of life, but you can never reach the high pedestal of official renown. This same John Pool who was a Davis elector, and voted for him for President of the so-called Confederate States! Every Judge, and we believe that every Solicitor elected were opposed to the doctrine of secession, while most of them, if we are not mistaken, were of that stripe, known as Vance-war men. Judge Barnes acted as one of Gov. Vance's aids—a most confidential relation. Judge Warren proposed, in acceding to the Confederate constitution, to assert in doing so, one right of secession. Judge Fowle was Captain and Colonel, in the Confederate service, and Adjutant General under Gov. Vance.

We have never understood that any of the four circuit Judges elect, were claimed and classified as "straights," unless perhaps, it might be Judge Warren. They are all personally, we have understood, estimable gentlemen, but quite moderate in point of talent or legal learning with a single exception. If these gentlemen had given "no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement" to the Southern movement, we could offer no complaint, for to the victors belong the spoils. The "straights" assisted the U. S. Government all they could consistently with humanity from arrest and trial for treason and they might therefore, in a comprehensive and broad-cast view of the subject, be treated as having formed part and parcel of the forces of the conqueror. They can therefore claim all the honors, and all the offices as their part of the spoils; but we earnestly protest against those gentlemen who threw up their caps over Confederate victories, and aided Gov. Vance so heartily, being allowed to "shuck and snack" and put on other clothes so quickly. Proceed, gentlemaa, if you think "there is no hereafter." But we tell you now, that sooner or later you must show your balance sheet to the people. They have trusted you at a day and time when they were told that it was expedient so to do; they will hold you to a strict accountability; they will require of you at a later day, wherefore, men who were Southern men in principle are to be set aside, trampled under foot, put under the ban and at the same time men, who were fully as much practically "in the mud of secession as the former in the mire," and who have not even the excuse that they thought it was right to go over as the "originals" have—are elected to the highest offices in the land.

HAVE YOU EVER SEEN A REAL FAIRY?

If not, now is the time to gratify a natural curiosity in regard to this famous elfin race.

On next Tuesday or Wednesday, the town of Salisbury will be visited by a REAL FAIRY, in size at least; and she will appear under such circumstances as will enable all to form her acquaintance. Small bills circulated in our streets will give particulars.

She is in her seventeenth year, weighs about twenty three pounds, and is about thirty three inches tall, being the smallest women, perhaps, in the world. A native of old Rowan, she respectfully asks every body to call and see her before she starts on a contemplated excursion, from which she expects shortly to return and tell the fortune of every one who may apply to her.—By the way, it is hinted that she is inspired with the gift of divination to as high a degree as any that ever peered into the future.

The Western Mail.

Many of our subscribers, along the Western Rail-road, complain that they do not get the Banner regularly—sometimes get no paper for several days. How is this? Who is to blame in this matte. We mail the papers regularly—and always have them in the post office at this place in time for the trains going West; so there must be some loose management elsewhere. Will some one inform us who is responsible for this negligence?

RECONSTRUCTION.

The Government turning over the telegraphic lines, and releasing all citizen prisoners on bail to appear before the civil tribunal for trial, looks a little like the work of re-construction had commenced in earnest. These are gratifying changes for the Southern people and if they will but sustain the magnanimous policy of President Johnson, there is nothing to fear for the future weal of our lately distracted country.

IMPORTANT TO PUBLISHERS.

According to an act relating to the Post Office Department approved 3d March 1863; we see that publishers are not allowed to send any papers through the mail as specimen copies or otherwise, (unless to regular subscribers,) without the postage is prepaid, under a penalty of fifty dollars.

IMPORTANT SALE.—We read in the local column of the Salisbury Union Banner, of the 2nd inst., the following astounding announcement: "Don't forget that the sale of Mrs. Fox takes place today at 10 o'clock, at Blackwood & Co's Auction Store." Now, we should like to know why Mrs. Fox was to be sold, and if she was actually put up at auction, at the hour specified.

Raleigh Standard.

We fess up. Mrs. F. was not sold, but we are. Come up Mr. Standard and take a bowl of oysters with us.

On motion of Mr. Eure, the resolution was laid on the table.

After some debate on the proposition, it was concurred in.

Mr. Ferrebee gave notice that he would enter his protest on the journals against the second clause of the amendment to the constitution of the United States, as it did not meet his approbation. Messrs. Faison, Cowper and Sanders gave similar reasons.

Mr. J. M. Leach was clearly of the opinion that the vote on the amendment was unanimous. The journals were appealed to and read, and it did not appear that there were any dissenting votes. The journals report simply that the bill passed.

The Senate now proceeded to vote for a Judge of the third Judical circuit, as follows: Eaton received 19 votes, Fowle 25.

BY U. S. TELEGRAMPH LINE.

Philadelphia, Dec. 3d.—Forney's Press to-day asserts positively, editorially, that Colfax will be re-elected Speaker, and McPherson Clerk of the House. He says the action of Mr. McPherson in refusing to place upon his initial roll the names of members elected from States in Rebellion, has met the commendation of the National Union Party.—The firm and noble course of these gentlemen, during our political troubles, has shown what they are, and their re-nomination to these important and responsible offices is the best and truest appreciation of the worth and standing in which they are held. Mr. Colfax will return to the duties of Speaker with a larger appreciation and truer knowledge of the greatness of our country, gained during his tour across the continent, coupled with the experience of the past two years in the Speakers' chair. Mr. McPherson, too, whose record is so favorably known to every Pennsylvanian, will again be the efficient Clerk of the House of Representatives. The policy of the Government will be then assured, and all will be well. Some prominent national Pennsylvanian politicians who appear to be in the confidence of the President, assert equally positive, with Forney, that the President does not endorse the action of Mr. McPherson, nor, desire the re-election of Colfax; they say that he wishes all Southern members, with proper credentials to be admitted to their seats.

GENERAL NEWS.

Washington, December 3.—The Republican caucus re-nominated Hon. Schuyler Colfax for Speaker and Mr. McPherson for Clerk by acclamation. All the other incumbents were re-nominated excepting the postmaster.

No Southern members were admitted to the caucus.

A resolution was unanimously adopted, to be offered in both Houses, for the appointment of a committee of fifteen to consider the condition of the socalled Confederate States, and report whether any of them are entitled to representation. No member will be admitted until such report be made and acted upon by Congress.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Senator Wilson has prepared a bill, and will press it to an early vote, repealing all laws in the South which recognize unequalities in civil rights and immunities in consequence of distinction or difference of color, race or descent.

REDUCTION OF THE FRENCH ARMY.

It is asserted that an imperial decree has been signed, effecting great reductions in the army. Seven battalions of the Guard are to be disbanded; one hundred regiments of the line will each be reduced by three companies; two regiments of carbineers are to be incorporated with the cuirassiers of the Guard; fifty regiments of cavalry, now consisting of six squadrons each, will be reduced to five squadrons, and forty batteries of artillery will be abolished. The reductions will, altogether, comprise about eighteen hundred officers and forty-two thousand men.

The El Dorado has arrived at Toulon from Civita Vecchia with one thousand and eighty-nine soldiers.

Yesterday afternoon, about five o'clock, while Hon. Geo. W. Julian was waiting in the lady's room of the depot at Richmond, Ind., he was approached by Sol. Meredith, Esq., who after speaking a few words, struck him (Julian) and partially knocked him down. Meredith then drew a cowhide from under his coat and proceeded to apply it to Mr. Julian, continuing until by-standers interferred.—The immediate cause of the difficulty we have not learned.—Cin. Gazette, 27.

Mr. McPherson, the Clerk of the House, has definitely decided to omit the names of all the members elect from the State of Virginia, as in his opinion, even were no question of law involved with respect to the test oath act, the credentials issued by Gov. Piermont, which they have respectively presented, are irregular in form.—Nat. Int., 30th.

A Federal paymaster who fled with $35,000 into Mexico was lately killed by some guerillas.

It is said that the amnesty proposed by Maximilian has been accepted by some of Juarez officers.

Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, Senator Trumbull, of Illinois, and Hon. Thaddeus Stevens were among those who obtained interviews with the President on the 29th inst.

Knoxville, Nov. 27.—The United States District Court, Judge Connelly N. Trigg, presiding, began a session to-day. The streets and hotels are crowded with citizens. The grand jury have found indictments numbering over fifteen hundred, for treason and giving aid and comfort to the enemy. Parties will have contesting cases, who, two years ago to-day, were in the destructive recoil on Fort Sanders. The Court will continue for some months.

When James Stephens, the Fenian leader, was committed for treason at Dublin, on the 15th ult., he was asked by the magistrate if he had anything to say to the charge. He responded as follows:

"I feel bound to say, with view to my own conviction, as I have employed no attorney or lawyer in this case, and do not intend to employ one, that the information of defence of any kind should be regarding British law and claims. Now I deliberately deny the existence of that law in Ireland, its right or even its existence. I repudiate the right of its existence in Ireland, and defy any punishment that can be inflicted on me. I have spoken."

Hon. Wm. A. Graham, was elected U. S. Senator to fill the long term—on the second ballot, Pool, of Bertie, lacked one vote of election.

J. A. Van Antwerp, the gentleman, died suddenly, in Philadelphia, on the 27th.

Littleton Tazewell of Virginia, is dead.

The Freedmen's Bureau in Richmond have been ordered to refrain from exercising jurisdiction in criminal cases.

Gen. Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau, to-day issued a circular applicable to those of the Southern people whose property has been restored to them, in which he states that numerous cases have been reported of the unmanly execution of freedmen and refugees from their employers on the plantations thus restored, and orders that hereafter all officers and agents of the Bureau will prevent the occurrence of such ejectments in future. In cases of doubt the Assistant Commissioner of the State is directed to forward his opinion to the Commissioner of the Bureau before any order of restoration is made.

National Thanksgiving Day.

Proclamation by President Johnson.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God during the year which is now coming to an end, to relieve our beloved country from the fearful scourge of civil war, and to permit us to secure the blessings of peace, unity and harmony with a great enlargement of civil liberty: And Whereas our Heavenly Father has also during the present year graciously averted from us the calamities of foreign war, pestilence and famine, while our granaries are full of the fruits of an abundant season: And Whereas righteousness exalteth a nation, while sin is a reproach to any people:

Now, therefore, be it known, that I ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, do hereby recommend to the people thereof that they do set apart and observe the first Thursday of December next as a day of National Thanksgiving and Prayer, and that on the occasion the whole people make confession of our national sins against His infinite goodness, and with one heart and one mind implore the Divine guidance in the ways of national virtue and holiness.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six-[L.S.]-ty five, and of the Independence of the U. States of America the nineteenth.

LOCAL.

THOS. J. FLACK & SONS.

We are pleased to chronicle the arrival of our old friend and fellow citizen, Capt. Jas. M. Goodman, who is now in the employ of Messrs. Thos. J. Flack & Sons, of Baltimore, wholesale dealers in Whiskies, Brandies, Wines, &c., and in fact every kind of liquors known. Capt. Goodman while an officer of this place, in times that tried mens souls, by his business tact, urbanity and gentlemanly deportment made many warm friends, who, we are satisfied, will sustain him in his new field of labor, as they all know that he is peculiarly fitted for the new position, and they can depend upon what he tells them.

The House with which he is connected is one of old standing, "native to the manor born," with the means to carry on a large business, and deserving of all the trade from the South they can obtain, and having a large stock on hand, will cheerfully carry out and fill all promises the Captain may make.

We trust our citizens and merchants dealing in this line, will show their appreciation of his past services by extending to him their patronage and support. Do not let the Captain return empty handed but with large orders for goods in his line.

NEW YORK OBSERVER.

We have received the Prospectus of this paper. As a postscript we find the following:

"NOTICE.—Publishers inserting the above advertisement three times, every other week, with editorial notice, and sending us a marked copy, will receive the Observer one year."

This is decidedly modest. We would not send the Banner even in exchange, much less inflict our reader with a perusal of the prospectus, or an editorial notice of the Observer.

OFFICERS OF FULTON LODGE. NO. 99 A. Y. M.

At the election on Friday night last, for officers for the ensuing Masonic year, the following Brethren were elected:

INDIGNANT UNNECESSARILY.

An Ex-Congressman, who feels himself agrieved by an article which appeared in this paper some time since relative to him, writes to a gentleman of this place, inquiring who it was that wrote the paragraph in question. We would inform the Hon. gentleman that our name is at the head of our columns; and that we only are responsible for what the Banner contains. In point of fact, we wrote it.

MERRY'S MUSEUM.

We have received from the publishers, this excellent Magazine. It contains much interesting reading matter, with appropriate illustrations.

DISSOLVED.

The Military Commission lately in session at this place, has been dissolved, and it is not probable that another will be convened.

Capt. Frazer, the efficient Judge Advocate, has been detailed Provost Marshall for the W. D. N. C.

There is one regiment only, the 128th Indiana, left on duty in the West District. The 130th Indiana having been mustered and sent home.

THE RICHMOND TIMES.

What has become of this able champion of conservatism and re-construction? We have not seen a copy these many days. We hope the Times does not intend to quit us. It will not do for two of the best papers of Virginia and North Chrolina respectively to separate thus.

The Home Journal.

We have received several copies of this popular paper. It is emphatically the Home Journal. We have also received the prospectus of it for 1866.

Price, for one copy, one year, $3: for three copies, $750.

THE SOUTHERN EXPRESS.

It seems that this old and well arranged company is not to be outdone by competition. Their agents and messengers are to be found on every line of Railroad in the Union. Their long experience in the public service, give them great advantage over similar institutions. But as there is no disposition to monopolize the Express patronage, being actuated by a fair and honorable spirit of competition only, the public will not very soon forget their past services.

THE FARMER,

A MONTHLY JOURNAL,

DEVOTED TO AGRICULTURE, HORTICULTURE, THE AUXILIARY MECHANIC ARTS, AND TO HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY.

To be Published at Richmond, Va.

The undersigned propose to publish in this city—commencing in January, 1866—a monthly Journal to be styled "The Farmer," whose pages shall be devoted to Agriculture, Horticulture, the auxiliary Mechanic Arts and to Household Economy. A Journal which shall faithfully and successfully represent these cardinal interests by the dissemination of practical information & thorough, sound instruction, will supply a desideratum which is widely and deeply felt in the present exigency of our affairs, and ought, therefore, (we should think) readily to commend itself to popular acceptation, and command, in return, a remunerating patronage. "Faithfully" and "successfully" to support these interests, requires a Journal of the highest order of its kind. It is to nothing short of this high standard of public usefulness that "The Farmer" aspires, and to reach and maintain it, will be an object of unremitting effort and unsparing liberality of expenditure. It seeks recognition as a worthy organ of these cardinal branches of national industry, of which it assumes the special advocacy, and hopes to meet the requirements of the position satisfactorily to those whose interests are more immediately involved.

We are fallen upon times of peculiar and unexampled difficulty. The sudden and violent overthrow of African slavery, without premonition of its near approach, or preparation for the event, interwoven, as it was, with the very texture of our social constitution, has rendered all past experience with respect to the economy and regulation of labor nugatory, razed to its foundation the entire system of Southern agriculture, and necessitated its re-construction and re-organization in accordance with the recent changes in our circumstances and relations. Suddenly launched upon a tempestuous sea of danger and perplexity without the polar star of experience to guide us, we must, as best we can, improvise the measures which appear at the moment the best adapted to the purposes of present security, and as calmly tentative, await the slow progress of a we may effort and empirical practice for the development of facts and the matured fruits of experience and observation from the careful comparison and generalization of all which, sound principles may be deduced for our future guidence and direction. Then will a new creation of order, harmony and beauty spring out of the chaotic disorder and confusion which now prevail. Then will the desolation and ruin which mar the face of the country be repaired. And not till then shall wholesome and stable rules and regulations control the entire system of husbandry, with its adjuncts and subsidiaries, and give force and efficiency to the administrative measures necessary for the conduction of all its operations to the most satisfactory and profitable results.

To facilitate and promote these important considerations, a good agricultural journal is an obvious necessity. A medium of communication, for the interchange among farmers of views and opinions entertained by them respectively on subjects appertaining to their common calling, is indispensable, and they especially need a vehicle of intelligence for the transmission of the earliest notice of improvement in any department of husbandry, that, by a wide diffusion of such notice, the improvements may be adopted in practice and thus prove a general benefit to the farming fraternity.

Now, to sum up in a word: It is to meet this obvious and pressing necessity that the proprietors propose to publish the above described paper, and in behalf of the undertaking they respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

The best talent, both practical and theoretical which the country affords, will be commanded in aid of this enterprise, and no expense will be spared in the effort to make the Journal complete in all respects.

It will be printed on good paper and with clear type, and will comprise thirty two pages of reading matter. An advertising sheet of capacity sufficient to accommodate the advertising patronage of the Journal will be added.

Papers disposed to exchange with The Farmer will send their papers at once.

PROPOSALS FOR CARRYING THE MAILS.

We publish below proposals for carrying the mails weekly to the County seats of this State, until the first of January next. We trust that persons who may be disposed to make proposals will do so at once, as mails are very much needed. We learn that ten dollars per mile will be allowed for this temporary service. The post offices on the various lines will be supplied, and it is desirable that postmasters be appointed at once. Proposals for any of these routes, and nominations for Postmasters, may be addressed to Gov Holden, to be forwarded by him to Washington. Persons who may propose to carry the mails must offer the necessary evidence that they will comply with their contracts; and nominations for Postmasters must be endorsed by loyal men, known to the Governor. Females may act as Postmasters, and there is no objection to appointing them.

The advertisement for the regular mail service in this State will appear soon.

We learn that the granting of this special temporary mail service is due to the indefatigable exertions of Dr. R. J. Powell, the State Agent in Washington, aided by W. S. Mason and W. J. Palmer, Esq'rs. of this city. We believe that no such favor has been extended to any other State.

NOTICE.

MODEL SEWING MACHINE.

(From the New York Herald)

Prominent among the mechanical triumphs of this most ingenious age, common honesty compels us to notice the Empire Sewing Machine, commended as justly styled perfection itself. Useful as have been the various sewing machines, from time to time presented to the public, each one of them has been cursed with some radical defect, which detracts from general utility. Warned by the experience of his predecessors, the inventor of the Empire Machine has produced an instrument, combining all the advantages for which others are vaunted, and obviating every defect which can be attributed to them by the most fastidious critic.

The Empire Machine is a marvellous combination of simplicity, economy and perfect workmanship, being durable, free from liability to get out of order, noiseless, and easy of, operation. its mechanical contrivance is such as to secure stability, freedom from accident, and accuracy as to workmanship. By the use of the patented shuttle and straight needle, it makes a stitch, which can neither rip nor ravel, at the same time, it can operate perfectly upon every species of material from leather to cambric, with threads of cotton, linen or silk, from the finest to the coarsest number.

As the Empire Machine is gradually supplanting its more antique rivals, no one in want of a useful instrument of this description, be he or she tailor, coachmaker, dressmaker or seamstress, can do otherwise than secure one of these economical and inimitable machines, suited alike for family and manufacturing purposes. The office of the Empire Manufacturing Co. is at No. 536 Broadway, New York City, where they are now supplying these Empire Machines a prices far below the real value of the instrument.—New York Herald.

To the People of the South!

THE OLD

"EXAMINER" REVIVED!!

The undersigned, having purchased its good will and subscription books, proposes to revive, at an early day, the old Richmond Examiner, of which the late John M. Daniel was editor-in-chief, and the undersigned his constant associate for the entire period of the war.

It is believed that the public will recognize an appropriate and practical idea in this enterprise.—Efforts to revive other papers in the South are announced, and it is certainly neither a visionary nor unworthy endeavour for the literary associates of a gallant spirit that now sleeps in the grave to essay honour to his memory and a service to the public by reviving the old Examiner newspaper, so long the ornament of Southern letters, an example at once of the scholarship and chivalry of Virginia; and perhaps the only school in the South of pure and classick English distinct from the models and redeemed from the innovations of Northern instructors.

The fame of the old Richmond Examiner reached to the most distant parts of the world. The paper was well known in Europe. It was pronounced by a distinguished Northern politician "the best exponent of the civilization of the South." It was a school of literary scholarship for the youth of the South; the glass of Southern chivalry; an example of independence, of courage, of iron spirit in newspaper literature, which its chief illustrated in his own noble and severe life, and defended more than once on the field of honor, when the undersigned stood with in the vindication of the freedom of the press.

Surely there are many people in the South who will unite in an effort to revive a newspaper which was an ornament to its literature and a school for its virtues. The task is an ambitious one. But the undersigned attempts it in no mean or flagging spirit. He has already undertaken to marshal a corps of the old writers for the Examiner; he will be able to reproduce its typographical features, and present to Southern readers a fac simile of their old acquaintance; and he fervently trusts and resolutely pledges every resource of intellect and will to breathe again in this form of material resurrection the same spirit of fearless criticism, chivalrous contest and unhesitating encounter with abuse that animated it of old.

The undersigned owns some pledges of affection in this enterprise. His relations with the late John M. Daniel was close, intimate and affectionate to the day of his death. And it will indeed be a labor and aspiration of love if he can produce some echo from the grave of lamented friendship and rekindle from the ashes of the past and the dead some of the fire that illuminated the familiar pages of our literature.

In the present uncertainty of political questions—the dissappointment of old issues and the imperfect development of the new—it would, of course, be impossible to state with precision the political career of the Examiner. But this may be said with safety; that it will use all its influence in restoring order, tranquility and prosperity to the people; and while aspiring to be brave and independent, it will avoid every scheme of faction and disorganization, devote itself to the works of conservatism, and sustain, at every risk, the present President of the United States as long as he fulfills those noble indications he has already given of planting again the rights of constitutional liberty in the South, setting his face against the Malignants of the North, and thus entitling himself to such common support of conservative men in all parts of the country as will secure the continuation of his wise and patriotic administration.

No pains or expense will be spared to make the Examiner the newspaper of the South. For every department of it the services of the most accomplished and active writers will be secured. Special correspondents will be posted in New York and Washington and other important centres of intelligence in the country. A former active editor of the old Examiner, Edward A. Pollard, will be employed as correspondent from Europe in which country he proposes to write a History of the War, and to form a familiar acquaintance with the politics of Europe, especially in connection with American questions and topicks. This correspondence will constitute a special feature of interest in our paper; it will enliven its columns from week to week with the productions of an animated pen; and it will afford our readers a singularly good opportunity to make themselves acquainted with cotemporary Europe, and to apprehend the growing interest of our foreign relations.

The undersigned was recently the editor of the Richmond Times, but in consequence of a disagreement with the part proprietor of that paper, he has been forced to leave it and appeal to the civil courts for his rights; and he now proposes to himself the nobler task of reviving a paper endeared to the South by many memories of the past, and associated with so much that is admirable in its heroick and literary name in history. He calls upon the old subscribers of the Examiner, from Virginia to Texas, to rally to its support, to renew their subscriptions, and to assist in the revival of a paper which has existed for three-quarters of a century, and which has ever been solicitous to honor truth and virtue, prompt to chastise abuses, and ambitious to defend and adorn the civilization and literature of the South.

Advertisements will be inserted on the same terms as published by the other Richmond papers.

The first number of the Examiner will contain a sketch of the life of the late John M. Daniel, whose name is historical in connection with the Virginia press, and than whom the annals of newspaper literature in America show few more extraordinary men—certainly no greater master of vigor and satire in composition. The first numbers will also contain a full and complete account of the evacuation of Richmond, with all the particulars of the surrender of the city, the entry of the troops, the great conflagration, &c., taken from the advance sheets of E. A. Polard's "Fourth Year of the War," now in press. This account will be found intensely interesting; and aside from this consideration, every one should secure and preserve these numbers, as they will be valuable hereafter as affording a true and faithful report of what the South has had hitherto but the imperfect narratives which have been written and published in the Northern press.

The old contributors and correspondents of the Examiner are particularly requested to communicate with the undersigned.

All letters and communications of every character should be addressed to

H. RIVES POLLARD,
Richmond, Va.

Wanted, an Agent in every town in Virginia and all the Southern States.

Also, immediately, twenty active and enterprising men to travel and canvass for the paper—a fine chance for men out of employment. H. R. P.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday 2d January next.

Confidently relying upon the hearty suport which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense, in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the CHURCH, also, partake of this progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the CHURCH to the importance and necessity of WORK: of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; contribution from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co operation in a common cause for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us both the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all that we hope for on the earth.
